FOR A NEW CHURCH

The Fourth House of Worship in the Suburb of Brookland.

CORNER STONE TO BE LAID TOMORROY

A Large Gathering of Distinguished Catholic Clergy Expected.

PLANS OF THE BUILDING

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the corner stone of the fourth church structure in Brookland will be laid. This time it will be St. Anthony's Catholic Church, which will be located on the west side of 12th street near Lansing street. Cardinal Satolli will perform the ceremony of laying the corner stone and Bishop O'Gorman will deliver the address. The singing will be furnished by the Paulist and Marist fathers and members of the Catholic University and colleges in the District. An invitation has been extended to the entire faculty of the Catholic University, the Holy Cross Order, the Marist and Paulist fathers, besides the clergy of all the churches throughout the District, Representatives of the different Catholic societies will be present, and a goodly number is expected from points outside.

The New Building. The frontage of the church will be about 40 feet, with a depth of 80 feet. The back, after allowing for the sacristies, will be about 55 feet. The walls up to the main floor will be constructed of red bricks, laid in dark red mortar. The body of the building will be of frame, the whole presenting press shingles, stained a very dark color An octagon-shaped belfry will surmount the front gable, and the long, simple roof lines will be broken by small dormer win-dows, which are intended to ventilate the interior. The entrance will be through an open timber porch, located in the center of the front of the building, leading to

of the front of the building, leading to quite a spacious vestibule, thence to the body of the church.

The pews, which will be of polished oak, especially designed by the architect, will be reached by a wide center aisle and two side aisles. The sanctuary will have a depth of 28 feet and a width of 20 feet, and will be expressed by descriptions or the will be approached by doorways on the north and south sides, each leading to a large sacristy. Ample space has been al-lowed for two side alters, that of St. Mary and St. Joseph, which will be erected when the building is completed. Special attention has been given to the designing of the large rose window, which will be octagon-shaped, over the mein altar.

The choir will be accommodated by gallery reaching across the entire width of the building. Under the gallery and on each side of the vestibule will be located the confessionals, and the baptistry will stand in the southeast corner, near the entrance. The entire cost will be about $7,000. The contract has been given to Messrs. John T. Hare and Louis Byrnes of Brookland Mr. G. A. Dessez of Washington, the architect, has paid special attention to ever detail of the designing of the building.

The Corner Stone. The corner stone has been kindly present ed by Mr. T. Hany of Washington. It is a brown stone 13 inches by 13 inches by 21 inches. In the center of the stone is a Calatrava cross, with the letters A. D. in the lower left-hand corner, and 1896 in the ower right-hand corner. In the stone will be placed some current coins and copies of also be a piece of parchment, on which will be written the names of the present pope, Leo XIII, Cardinal Gibbons, the Commissioners of the District, Bishop Keane, Rev. Dr. Garrigan, Grover Cleveland, Cardinal Satolli, and the present paster, Rev. Dr. De Wulf.

ter, Rev. D. C. De Wulf.

Growth of the Parish. The history of the church has been unlike that of any other similar structure. It was in the spring of 1891 that Miss Antoinette Margot's house on the Bunker Hill NO ONE KNOWS BETTER than those who have used Carter's Little Liver Pills what relief they have given when taken for dyspepsia, dizzines, pain in the side, constitution and disordered stomach. read was completed with two spacious parlors on the first floor on the east side, which she intended to use as an art studio. Finding the great necessity of a Cathilic Church in Brookland, she offered these par-lors to the cardinal for a chapel. Permission was given to hold services there in the fall, and on September 19, 1891, the first mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Mackin, now paster of St. Paul's Church on 15th and V streets. Father Mackin kirdly presented the altar, vestments and neces-saries to the rising church. From that Monday evening last the tenth annual re-union of the class of '86. Washington High regular pastor, the priests from Washington and the Catholic University filling the pulpit. In the fall of 1892 Rev. D. C. De Wulf, having been appointed paster of the Soldiers' Home Church, was enabled to take upon himself also the Catholic Chapel in Brookland, now known as St. Anthony, Since then Rev. D. C. De Wulf has been an able pastor, which position he now holds. The Sunday school was then brought to the chapel and better organized. Hereto-fore the children had received religious instructions at the Paulist fathers.

Many donations have been presented to the chapel, one of the most prominent being a large statue of St. Anthony by Miss Julia Austin of Vermont. It has been the generous contributions of the friends and congregation which have enabled the present obvious by the built. ent church to be built. Plans for the Future. Great consideration and foresight has een displayed in the situation of the present church. The space left on the corner of 12th and Lansing street will be the site of a future large church, then the present building will be used for a school, while ground has been left on the south side for Mussey, Mr. H. S. Knight, Mr. Luther L. Apple and Miss Anna Mae AtLee.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs.
L. G. Hine, Dr. and Mrs. J. Ramsey Nevitt, Mr. and Mrs. Luther L. Apple, Mr. and Mrs. Williams. H. S. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Cromlein, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Davis, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Herron, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. George Johnson, the Misses Anna M. Atlee, Mamie L. Williams, Lewanna Williams, Dela P. Mussey, Emma S. Jacobs, Sallie E. Burrough, Maggie E. Larcombe, Miriam J. Austin, Julia T. Cavanaugh, Mrs. E. P. Mertz, Mrs. Carl Decker, Mrs. J. S. Burton and Messrs. L. P. Whitaker, Charles H. Bates, Simon Lyon, W. A. Hipkins, William E. Horton, Austin, Atlee and Cook.

The Hot Tomale Club evening the Hot Tomale Club of the Central High School class of '95 will hold its second annual banquet at Reckeweg's, opposite the school, on O street. The arrangement committee, consisting of W. A Page, R. S. Harford, J. H. Altschu, has men of that city, has been sentenced to serve fifteen months in the house of correction. The alleged bribery occurred in connection with the issuance of liquor licenses at Haverhill.
